Re: United States v. Remila Christo
07 Cr. 818 (RMB)

Dear Judge Berman:

On Friday, September 7, 2007, before Magistrate Gorenstein, I was appointed as the CJA attorney for defendant Remila Christo in the above-referenced case. I am writing to request a slight modification of her bail conditions.

Ms. Christo and her husband defendant James Christo are charged in a one-count indictment with conspiracy to commit immigration fraud, perjury, and to make false statements, in violation of 18 U.S.C. § 371. Ms. Christo was released on the following principal bail conditions: $100,000 personal recognizance bond, travel restricted to the continental United States, and regular pre-trial services reporting. I am seeking to have the pre-trial services reporting requirement removed. In this regard, it should be noted that Ms. Christo's pre-trial services officer, Xiomara Rojas, advised she believed that pre-trial reporting was not necessary in light of Ms. Christo's employment. Ms. Rojas also indicated that co-defendant James Christo's release conditions do not include a reporting requirement. Also, I have spoken to Michael Levy, the AUSA in charge of this case. He stated that the government has no opposition to the reporting requirement being removed as a condition of release.

RICHARD B. LIND

Accordingly, it is respectfully requested that Remila Christo's application, to have pre-trial services reporting removed as a condition of her release on bail, be granted.

Respectfully submitted,
